

Lady Jayne takes flowers into three dimensions with flower topped pens with pads in flower pot holders and gets playful with patterns and foil in other offerings. (800) 274-7685

This die-cut floral bouquet from Rosebud Design requires no water, while other items are a chic mélange of florals and patterns. (310) 435-1270

In designs from Bernadette Elentny, floral elements become part of the design, and are combined with pattern and a vivid palette for standout looks. (773) 529-9594

Mirage's selection of beautiful journals are shown in one of several available colorways. (800) 836-6669

From Louella Press, hypnotic Twig, Lazy Daisy and Wish Flower folded notes are letterpressed. (610) 293-3690

Chronicle Books highlights two ends of the fashionable floral spectrum: Cath Kidston blends whimsical, classic and nostalgic elements, while Sunblooms features stylized presentations from designer Amy Butler. (800) 722-6657

